Old Business:

Mohawk Thursday Night – Brent reported the season was quite possibly the best ever in his tenure complete with excellent student behavior and a fine group of chaperones. Everyone had fun despite the lack of natural snow.

Basketball – Brent reported that the season is over for all teams and they will go into the playoffs. Our 7-8 grade girls' team won there league with a perfect 10-0 record.

New Business:

Concerts on the Green – Brent said that all the concerts have been booked for the Wednesday Night Concert Series and he has been invited to the Borough of Litchfield's monthly meeting to address some concerns from the Borough.

Yoga Class – There will be a new class offered to Litchfield students, "Yoga for Kids" which will begin in April at the Bantam Gym and be offered once a week through August. Carissa Van Duesen is the instructor and has vast experience teaching Yoga.

Trips with Warren Park and Rec – Brent said that the local Park and Rec agencies in the Northwest Corner are joining forces in order to promote bus trips to several interesting places or games. He and the Warren Park and Rec Director have been talking for over a year about combining forces and now Goshen and Morris are also coming on board. Lisa asked if events are posted on our website and they are. Ed suggested contacting Doug Parker of Litchfield.BZ to add a link on his website as Park & Rec and list events from all organizations there, Brent will contact Doug.

Director's Report – The Director's report were sent to the members via email and all have read them.

Adjournment – Lisa made a motion to adjourn, Ed seconded and the meeting was adjourned at 8:28 p.m.
